

THE IRON ERA

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY BENJ. H. VOGT,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
Office on Morris Street near Blackwell.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION IN ADVANCE.
One Year, $2.00
Six Months, $1.00
Three Months, $0.50

ADVERTISING RATES.	1 WK.	2 WKS.	3 WKS.	1 Mo.
1 Inch	75	1.25	1.75	2.50
2 " "	1.25	2.00	2.75	4.00
3 " "	1.75	2.75	3.75	5.00
4 " "	2.25	3.50	4.75	6.00
5 " "	2.75	4.25	5.50	7.00
6 " "	3.25	5.00	6.25	8.00
7 " "	3.75	5.75	7.00	9.00
8 " "	4.25	6.50	7.75	10.00
9 " "	4.75	7.25	8.50	11.00
10 " "	5.25	8.00	9.25	12.00
11 " "	5.75	8.75	10.00	13.00
12 " "	6.25	9.50	10.75	14.00
13 " "	6.75	10.25	11.50	15.00
14 " "	7.25	11.00	12.25	16.00
15 " "	7.75	11.75	13.00	17.00
16 " "	8.25	12.50	13.75	18.00
17 " "	8.75	13.25	14.50	19.00
18 " "	9.25	14.00	15.25	20.00
19 " "	9.75	14.75	16.00	21.00
20 " "	10.25	15.50	16.75	22.00

ESTABLISHED IN 1851.
DRUGS AND MEDICINES, PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, BRUSHES, PERFUMERY, &c., at the lowest prices. Goods from the Manufacturers. Wholesale and Retail.
Sole Agents for Morris County, N. J., from and to N. Y. N. J.

JOHN F. STICKLER, Counselor at Law
AND
MASTER IN CHANCERY,
ROCKAWAY, N. J.
Office on Blackwell and Sussex Sts.
DOVER, N. J.

J. B. JOLLEY, Proprietor.
Horse and Carriage to Let.
L. C. BIERWIRTH,
ANALYTICAL CHEMIST.
DOVER, N. J.
Analyzes and Assays carefully made. Gold and Silver assayed in large or small quantities.
Minerals, fossils, soil, analyzed and valued.

W. T. LEOPOLD,
Counselor at Law,
AND MASTER IN CHANCERY,
Office in the National Union Bank Building, Blackwell St., DOVER, N. J.

Berkshire Valley Hotel!
A ROAD HOUSE near housing and fishing grounds, a pretty spot with large airy rooms, good tables, etc. This house has undergone thorough repairs, is fully equipped with the latest improvements, and is situated on a beautiful spot, a few miles from Dover. Sporting men, peddlars, and others looking for a good place to stop should find this hotel to be the best place in the State with good beds, comfortable rooms, and the best of liquors in the market. Also PORTER and other delicacies. DOVER, N. J.
Berkshire Valley, Nov. 7th, 1878. 49-1

JOHN DRUMMER'S
SHAVING AND HAIR CUTTING
SALOON,
SUSSEX STREET,
(between the WILSON HOUSE and Depot).
DOVER, N. J.
The place has been entirely refitted in a neat
manner. LADIES and CHILDREN'S HAIR CUTTING A SPECIALTY.

NEIGHBOUR & SMITH, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Cor. Blackwell and Sussex Sts.
DOVER, N. J.
4 H. NEIGHBOUR. A. G. SMITH.

L. W. THURBER,
SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS
OF MORRIS COUNTY,
DOVER, N. J.
Office over GEO. RICHARDS & Co.'s STORE,
DOVER, N. J.

MOSES BLANCHARD,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
DOVER, N. J.
Office over A. Wiggins' store and tin store,
Blackwell street.

MARY C. FORD, M. D., Homeopathic Physician,
Office at the residence of Mr. J. A. ADAMS,
Box 40, DOVER, N. J.

SPRING PATTERNS
AT
W. S. BABBITT'S
MORRISTOWN, N. J.
A full line of Mrs. Demarest's Spring Patterns, also "Portofino," and "What to Wear." Catalogue free by mail on application. W. S. BABBITT.

THE NATIONAL UNION
BANK OF DOVER,
DOVER, N. J., February 20th, 1879.
This Bank has now on hand for sale and immediate delivery all denominations of the U. S. currency, from $5 to $10,000 in quantities to suit purchasers. 11-17

MEETOTAL
TONIC
The great cure for DYSPEPSIA,
NERVOUSNESS, WEAKNESS, DE-BILITY and all disorders of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys.
MALARIA, and CHILLS AND FEVER are surely avoided by using this Tonic. It never fails to prevent these dreaded diseases.

CONSUMPTIVES can rely on it for strength to combat that consuming malady. It has given many the best health of their lives.
It gives quick relief in every case, strengthens and sustains all the vital organs, and must be tried to know its perfect health and strength its own name.

Free from alcoholic dangers, it is the best strengthening tonic and the most popular remedy ever sold.
Druggists sell it.
VAN DYKE & Co., 16 Vesey St. N. Y.
84-126

We have just received 500 pair of Mens', Boys' and Youths'

HEAVY WINTER BOOTS made

by Isaac Prouty & Sons, Spencer,

Mass., and Durland, Torrey & Co.,

Honesdale, Pa. 2,000 pairs of Womens', Misses' and Children's Shoes, made by the celebrated

Bay State Shoe and Leather Co., and 50 doz. Womens', Misses' and Children's extra fine Shoes, made in all widths by H. W. Merriam,

Newton, N. J. The above goods were all made expressly for us of the best material that money could purchase, and any one finding any SHODDY or any composition in them NOT LEATHER can get their money refunded. Our reputation in the past for selling GOOD GOODS

CHEAP is a sufficient guarantee that our prices in the future will be satisfactory to our customers. RODERER & HEAGAN, Cor.

Warren and Dickerson Sts., Opposite Depot,

DOVER, N. J.

PASSAGE TICKETS

ORAM, HANCE & Co.'s STORE,

PORT ORAM, N. J.

FOR the principal lines of steamships from New York to Liverpool and London, via HANTS or GREAT BRITAIN and IRELAND. 46-1

WOODPORT HOUSE.

THOMAS BRIGIT, Proprietor.

WOODPORT, MORRIS CO., N. J.

This well established hotel is open for the season and is particularly desirable for the winter season. The house is situated on a beautiful spot, and is surrounded by a large amount of land, and is well stocked with game, and is a favorite resort for sportsmen. The house is well furnished, and the food is of the best quality. The price is very reasonable. For particulars apply to the proprietor. 19-17JOHN DRUMMER'S SHAVING AND HAIR CUTTING
SALOON,
SUSSEX STREET,
(between the WILSON HOUSE and Depot).
DOVER, N. J.
The place has been entirely refitted in a neat
manner. LADIES and CHILDREN'S HAIR
CUTTING A SPECIALTY.NEIGHBOUR & SMITH, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Cor. Blackwell and Sussex Sts.
DOVER, N. J.
4 H. NEIGHBOUR. A. G. SMITH.L. W. THURBER,
SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS
OF MORRIS COUNTY,
DOVER, N. J.
Office over GEO. RICHARDS & Co.'s STORE,
DOVER, N. J.MOSES BLANCHARD,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
DOVER, N. J.
Office over A. Wiggins' store and tin store,
Blackwell street.MARY C. FORD, M. D., Homeopathic Physician,
Office at the residence of Mr. J. A. ADAMS,
Box 40, DOVER, N. J.SPRING PATTERNS
AT
W. S. BABBITT'S
MORRISTOWN, N. J.
A full line of Mrs. Demarest's Spring Patterns, also "Portofino," and "What to Wear." Catalogue free by mail on application. W. S. BABBITT.THE NATIONAL UNION
BANK OF DOVER,
DOVER, N. J., February 20th, 1879.
This Bank has now on hand for sale and
immediate delivery all denominations of the U. S. currency, from $5 to $10,000 in quantities to suit purchasers. 11-17MEETOTAL TONIC
The great cure for DYSPEPSIA,
NERVOUSNESS, WEAKNESS, DE-BILITY and all disorders of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys.
MALARIA, and CHILLS AND FEVER are surely avoided by using this Tonic. It never fails to prevent these dreaded diseases.CONSUMPTIVES can rely on it for strength to combat that consuming malady. It has given many
the best health of their lives.
It gives quick relief in every case, strengthens and sustains all
the vital organs, and must be tried
to know its perfect health and strength its own name.Free from alcoholic dangers, it is the best strengthening tonic and
the most popular remedy ever sold.
Druggists sell it.
VAN DYKE & Co., 16 Vesey St. N. Y.
84-126ROBTS TO LET!
APPLY TO
M. & I. SEARING.
80-17M. & I. SEARING.
80-17M. & I. SEARING.
80-17M. & I. SEARING.
80-17M. & I. SEARING.
80-17M. & I. SEARING.
80-17M. & I. SEARING.
80-17

POETIC.

THE OLD BALLAD OF GERNUTUS.

The Jew of Venice.

In Venice town in ancient times
A Jew did dwell, and his name Was Christianus, and he was A Christian of good name.By name "Gernutus" he was known,
This man of evil fame,
Who robbed his neighbors of their wealth,
And turned his gain to shame.No beggar's blessing fell on him;
He scorned the poor and low;
He sought no mercy for the weak,
And scorned the poor and low.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.And many a toiling, woe-worn man
He had from woe freed,
From all Gernutus and his tribe,
And bailed them from their need.But ships are frail, and winds are woe,
And changeable was the day;
The good Antonio's ventures failed;
His debts he could not pay.And in that town a merchant dwelt
Who was beloved by all,
Who feared not the high and great,
And never feared the fall.He loved his money first and kind
To those that sought his aid;
Nor need they leave a pledge behind,
'Twas not that merchant's trade.

THE FLORIDIAN.

LAKE BRADCLIFF, Orange Co., Fla.

Mr. Editor.—

The true Floridian, by instinct, intelligence and in practice, is in perfect accord with the processes of nature.Nothing could more admirably discuss this perfect harmony between nature and man, than for either to attempt to do anything in a hurry. The first impression of an energetic northern man is that there can be no excuse or palliation for such universal slovenliness and shiftlessness as are exhibited here. It is a source of constant wonder to him that in such a beautiful climate, the people should live so poorly, and be surrounded by so much that we call the comforts of life. He can see no reason why the people might not be comfortably situated.The soil, though not rich, will produce fair crops of such products as are suited to the climate. There is not a day in the whole year when he can plant some crops, neither is there a day but something may be harvested. He can 'make' crops for money, food and luxury in abundance, but he does not do it. And why? The reason that offends others is, that the climate is so warm and pleasant, that the people are content with a constantly mild or warm temperature, and they perhaps slowly, reduces a man's vitality and energy, till he comes to have a capacity to work. This may be the true reason for the existing state of affairs, but I believe the worst of the evil is in the man himself, and this climate simply affords favorable conditions for its development.Man is naturally a lazy being, and as a result will not do regular hard work from choice. He wants his bread to come from his face, when he must do that or go hungry. If he is situated in a harsh climate with a niggard soil, his utmost energies will be called in play to preserve an existence. If the summer is short and the winter long, he will toil unsuccessfully while the sun shines warm to procure sustenance for the winter when nothing will grow. There are but a few days in the spring in which to plant, and if these are lost a whole man's crop fails. The short summer must be utilized to the last moment in cultivating and securing his scanty store.The winter gives him no leisure, for fire, and stock, and preparation for the next season requires the improvement of every hour. He has only worked in harmony with the seasons and processes of nature. In March on April there comes a warm rain, or a bright sunny day. The great snow banks that have been accumulating for months, are destroyed, and the sun shines in great force on the earth. A few days of alternate chilling and freezing follow. The deciduous forests are like fishes first. The overgrown look dark and gloomy in the bright green foliage. Some mountains in the bright green foliage are seen bursting from the buds on the aspens. A whisper of two, with gentle showers, touches the lifeless looking oaks and elms, and as though touched by the hand of the magician, they burst into life. The green springs from the earth and covers it with a mantle of green.
The seed which the farmer has deposited in the cold soil sends up their green shoots to glorify his eyes and cheer his heart. Hyacinths bloom in many nooks, and the fragrant arbutus perfumes the spring-like air. Almost in a twinkling nature is transformed. To keep up with the season was necessary, and he does not. He leaves the arbutus, dry leaves and shrubs, because the climate drives him up to it. His motto is, "Never put off till to-morrow what can be done to-day."Now nature has never used such force to make the Floridian indolent.
Nature has also not an example of hurrying her work. She does her work deliberately, in the full conviction that there is plenty of time. In January you may notice some elms putting on fresh foliage. A peach tree in bloom, and these open buds are has been in use in private 20 years. It is not a patent not for sale by Grocers and supplied through the mail drugs SPEDER, Pharmacist, 638 52 Ave., New York City.

